CLUB BUSINESS:

- Director's meeting started at 5pm. We discussed club goals, committees, the new training assembly that will take place on May 23rd in Summerland for which the district will reimburse the club for half the expense if we have 10 members going. Cost would only be 25$ per person.
- District Governor meeting: Peter Schultz was here to share with us stories about what it means to be a Rotarian.
- Awards: Spouse of the year award was awarded to Chris Cleaver, Rotarian who Connects the world award was awarded to John McCormack.
- November is Foundation Month. The club will be matching your donations this month only. Please see Steve Wolfenden to know where you stand donation wise.
- District Conference is April 23-26 and the Grand Okanagan. We encourage early registration for this great event.

SPEAKER: Peter Schultz

- Peter encourages all Rotary members to read Chapter 1 of the Rotary Guide and Principles
- Core value reminder: Fellowship, Leadership, Service, Integrity, Diversity

- 4 way test is the basis of what we do and should be applied in everything. We are Rotarians and share these values.

Ken Firkins won the Draw. Congrats!
